

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 23-CR-168-JFH

AUSTIN DESHAWNN PARTEE and TYRONE JORDAN GRAY,

Defendants.

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is an unopposed motion to extend and reset motion deadlines, scheduling order, and jury trial (“Motion”) filed by Defendant Tyrone Jordan Gray (“Gray”). Dkt. No. 43. The United States of America (“Government”) and Gray’s codefendant Austin Deshawnn Partee (“Partee”) do not oppose the Motion. Id. at 1. The Court orally granted the Motion during pretrial conference on June 30, 2023. This written Order memorializing the Court’s ruling follows.

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

Gray requests additional time because his counsel recently entered the case and needs additional time to review discovery, conduct investigation, meet with his client and/ others, and continue discussions with the Government regarding potential resolution. Dkt. No. 43. The Court finds both Gray and Partee have executed speedy trial waivers, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 45. In addition to considering Gray’s and Partee’s interests, the Court has considered the public’s interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public’s interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the unopposed motion to extend and reset motion deadlines, scheduling order, and jury trial filed at Dkt. No. 43 is GRANTED. The jury trial set for July 17, 2023 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken. The following amended scheduling order is hereby entered:
